

LOCAL BREVITIES.

SINGER S. M. office in Glazier's store.
MISS MATTIE FORD, daughter of Mr. Frank Ford, of this city, we learn is very ill.

Spring and Summer Goods by the million! just received at J. J. Miller's, east side of public square.

Mr. Bart Benbo, of Maryville, Mo., was in the city on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Mr. Benbo came down with some prisoners, from Nodaway county.

Every description of Gents' Wearing Apparel to be found at J. J. Miller's, east side Public Square.

THE Tilton-Beecher case is still going on, but it is thought however that it will close in a month or two.

RUSSELL is selling goods cheap, and has lot's of them. Call and see for yourselves and get some bargains.

Spelling Schools are getting to be very popular now, and we anticipate a lively time at Hardy's Hall, next Friday evening. Judging by the persons who are taking an interest in the enterprise.

OUR job department is very complete, and we can furnish all classes of work as neatly and cheaply as can be done. Give us a call and we'll warrant satisfaction.

Mr. Sloan M. Young, had an addition of five to his happy family this week. L. A. Pliss and wife, Wm. Cleveland and wife and William Warner, were lodged in our jail on Wednesday last, by Sheriff Beech of Nodaway county, charged with keeping a Bawdy-house in Maryville Mo.,

It will astonish you to look over the mammoth stock of Clothing, in endless variety, now on exhibition at J. J. Miller's, the Cheap Clothier of Andrew.

One Arthur McMines, a colored man, was tried before Jesse John, Esq., this week, for the purpose of causing him to give bond to keep the peace. The complaining witness was John Ashford another colored man who feared the defendant would kill him or do him some great bodily harm. There were five or six Attorneys engaged in the case, and the trial occupied all of Monday and Tuesday. The rude expressions of the colored witnesses and curt remarks of the attorneys caused great merriment for the bystanders. The jury after hearing all the evidence and extended arguments of counsel were of the opinion that Arthur did not meditate any very serious evil toward John and returned a verdict of not guilty.

We can't say we are just exactly satisfied with the way Stiles & Hardy do their advertising. They don't advertise much in the papers, and yet they are selling a heap of goods, and candor forces us to admit they have a fine store.

For first-class job work of all kinds call at the REPUBLICAN office.

Go to the East-side Clothing Store of John J. Miller, and see the nice hats, caps, coats, vests, pantaloons, boots, shoes, trunks and valises, purchased specially for the spring trade of 1875.

OUR young friend J. S. McLain informs us that there is to be a combination of Democrats and Temperance men to defeat the excellent City Ticket placed in nomination by the Republicans of this city. Such a combination would be a novelty, even if it were possible for such an alliance to be made; but friend John is such an inveterate joker, that we believe he could hardly refrain from endeavoring to sell his friends even at a funeral. We like John first rate, and if it were not for the fact that he tells such wonderful stories with the expectation that we will swallow them, we would have a higher opinion of his judgment. Sometimes, however, we are led to believe that he does not expect us to believe all of them, and acts on the principle that everything is fair in politics as well as in war. We do not write this with the intention of giving offense to any one, but if friend John feels like taking offense, we are willing to have our mutual friend Samuel Frodsham, meet him at the "Old Tank" and fight it out, where they have had many a hotly contested battle.

HORSE AND JACK BILLS neatly and promptly executed at this office, on reasonable terms.

Trunks, Nickel Plated Leather Valises, water proof Overcoats, in large quantities, and as cheap as the cheapest, at J. J. Miller's, east side Public Square.

We call attention of the voters of this city, to the Republican City Ticket, which we place in this issue, and ask for it that cordial support which we believe it so justly deserves. The opposition are using their old thread-bare tactics against making the city election a partisan contest. When, where, and under what circumstances were the Democrats ever known to fail to place a full Democratic ticket in the field, when they knew they had a majority to back them? Their past history proves that in localities where they have a clear majority they always nominate a full ticket, and in places where Republicans have a majority, the Democrats are always very unwilling to make a party fight, but are ever ready to divide the offices. Republicans should not be hood-winked any longer by such tactics. We doubt very much if any party ever placed before the people a better ticket than the one nominated last Saturday by the Republicans of this city. And whether partisan or non-partisan, they could not vote for better men, and we urge all voters in Savannah, that take an interest in the election of good men, to not fail to be at the polls and vote next Tuesday week, May 4th, and press their friends to do the same.

There will be a Spelling School in the regular old fashioned style at Hardy's Hall, Friday, April 30th, at 7 1-2 P. M., for the benefit of the Public Library in this city. Admission 25cts.

Obituary.

DIED.—Of consumption, at her residence, in Savannah, Mo., April 20th 1875, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Carpenter, aged forty one years, four months and one day. Mrs. Carpenter was a very estimable lady and loved by all who knew her. The funeral rites were performed on the 21st, attended by a large number of sympathizing friends. She leaves a family of two girls and three boys and a large circle of warm friends to mourn her loss.

"On earth thou wert all but divine,
As thy soul shall immortality be;
And our sorrow may cease to repine,
When we know that thy God is with thee;
For why should we mourn for the best?"

DIED.

DAILY.—Infant son of Charles M. and Mary A. Dailey, Saturday night, April 17th, at their residence, in Andrew county, Mo.,

"And while the years and endless host,
Come pressing swiftly on,
The brightest names that earth can boast,
Just glisten and are gone.
Yet doth the Star of Bethlehem shed
A lustre pure and sweet;
And still it leads, as once it led,
To the Messiah's feet." (Bryant.)

WHEREAS, for the past two years, various persons have sought, by artfully worded advertisements, to impress upon the public mind that I, Nathaniel S. Dodge, M.
